NOTE: The gradebook viewer pulls data from Skyward’s gradebooks. It is essential to note that the gradebook grades and course history grades are separate data sets and may not always align. Teachers in Skyward must post actual grades. Teachers can change grades after posting, which may lead to discrepancies.

Hover over the “Cur” (current grade) to view midterm grades. Once the final grade is posted, the class term grade replaces the current grade and is no longer designated “Cur.”

Gradebook and Credits Tab

Gradebook provides a detailed look at a student's assignments and suggested progress grades for each course. Grades come from Skyward's Gradebooks. The grades displayed are calculated based on completed assignments and should not be considered final. Teachers in Skyward must post actual grades. Teachers can change grades after posting, which may lead to discrepancies. The gradebook viewer grades differ from those listed in the schedule spotlight, as they originate from separate data sets in Skyward.

Use the subpage (tabs) at the top of the container to view further detailed information. Student Gradebook HTML Content Block Launcher, Student Gradebook Data Table, Student Gradebook Data Table Missing Assignments
